MUSIC NEWS OF THE WEEK-CONCERTS-RECITALS'

Offerings at the Century Opera House -What the Musicians Are Doing choral work by Wilbur A. Luyster and

The Philharmonic concerts by the Boston Symphony Orchestra are given with the cooperation of the New York Philharmonic Society, William H. Wal-lace, president; Walter H. Crittenden. secretary, and the New York Symphony concerts, with the cooperation of the Brooklyn Symphony Society, F. A. M. Burrell, president, and Mrs. James S.

Waterman, secretary.

Altogether the number of musical events is larger than in any previous year, and Brooklyn will share with the rest of the country the presence of an unusually large number of solo artists of the highest rank. The Minneapolls Symphony Orchestra, which will be on tour in February, is expected to give one concert at the institute.

NOTES OF MUSIC EVENTS.

Maggie Teyte, the opera soprano, returns to America on the Imperator, October Brooklyn Institute Music-Beethoven Festival Concerts to Be Feature of Season certmeister, Leopold Kramer; the society's solo viola, Joseph Kovarik; its solo 'cellist, Leo Schulz; the first celarinetist, Henri Leof Le Roy, who appeared as solo-Henri Leon Le Roy, who appeared as sold-ist at the society's concerts of last season; the flist flate, first oboe and first bassoon, and the solo French horn player of the Philharmonic orchestra. Xaver Reitet The concerts of this artistic and unusual chamber music combination promise to be a feature of the musical season. The subscription tickets are issued through the Philharmonic Society this season will againvisit Brooklyn and give five Sunday afternoon concerts at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. An all Wagner programme will be given at the first concert, and the assisting artists during the season will include Mischa Eliman, violinist: Teresa Carrenopianist, and Julia Cuip, Dutch lieder singer. At one of the concerts the patrons will have the opportunity to enjoy the work of several of the solo instruments of the orchestra.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra will have this season the usual number of changes in its personnel, due chiefly to

WEEK'S OPERAS.

The Messrs. Aborn have selected "La Gloconda" for the second week of their season of popular grand opera at the Century Opera House.

The first performance of the opera will be given in English Tuesday evening, September 23. On the following Monday-night "La Gioconda" will be sung in

There will be seven performances of this work in English and the eighth per-formance will be sung in the original tongue.

The cast for the opening night in Eng-

La Gioconda, a ballad singer....Lois Ewell La Cieca, her blind mother Kathleen Howard Alvise Badoero, one of the heads of the State Inquisition......Alfred Kaufman

BROCKLYN INSTITUTE MUSIC.

Reethoven Festival Concerts to Be Feature of Season.

The musical season of the Brooklyn

On the Italian night, which will be the following Monday, September 29, Eugenio Falco will sing Grinaido and Cesare Allessacitron will be the Baruaba, while Miss Amsden will sing the titular role.

Sister Gusikon. The plants will the following Monday, September 29, Eugenio old Bauer, Withelm Bachaus and Mme. Stoffregen. The singers will include, either in recital or concert, or both. Mme. Schumann-Heink, whose recital this season will be in January and not in October as heretofore; Mme. Julia Culp in recital and concert; Mme. Louise Homer, with the New York Symphony Orchestra; Mme. van Endert, with the Boston Symphony Orchestra; Mme. Clara Butt and Kennerly

Institute of Arts and Sciences will open on the 16th of October, when Fritz phony Orchestra; Mme. Rost Why and Kreisler will give his first recital after T. Foster Why in joint recital, together most distinguished series of artists.

A new and especially interesting feature of the season will be a series of six Reethoven's Sanatas, Nos. XIII. to Six Inclusive. A. Foxton Ferguson, the English barytone, will give five lecture recitals on English folk songs and York Symphony Orchestra with the assistance of the New York Oratorio Society, a large number of solo artists and the Kneisel String Quartet. The prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Kneisel String Quartet. The Prosonates of Bach, Beethoven and the Company, will be soloist for a number of cardinates of George Hamlin, tenor, who is also a member of the Chicago-Philates of the Ch

Mme Ottilie Metager, Contralto of the Hamburg Opera. Engaged as Soloiet With New York Philharmonic Society...

Mary Jordan, Contralto Century Opera Company

First, Third and Ninth Symphonies and the Beethoven Mass. The latter work has not been given in recital or concert, or both, in
I. M. Ruben, who was formerly consisted of Mass, and is const to coast.

I. M. Ruben, who was formerly consisted of Mass, and is coast to coast.

I. M. Ruben, who was formerly consisted of Mathemangement of Haensel & Jones, will propose the Metropolitan Opera Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York defends and String of the Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company and been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company and the Kniest String and and courses of instruction in Schnoeder, cellist, and C. A. Ellis, her later Wilhelm der Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company and the Metropolitan Opera Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company and the Metropolitan Opera Company, and has been due to arrive in New York the Raiser Wilhelm der Company and the Metropolitan Opera Company and prominent concert stars and organization.

I. M. Ruben. Noted with th

America until the latter part of April. His season begins in Trenton, N. J., October 13, to be followed by a concert in Jersey 13, to be followed by a concert in Jersey 13, to be followed by a concert in Jersey 14, to be followed by a concert in Jersey 15, to be followed by a concert tour of Mme. Homer will be for in the middle West. She will open her season on October 6 in Lima, Ohio, the 5th she will be in Sioux Falls, S. D. 14th Columbus, Ohio; 17th Topeka, Kan; 15th Kansas City, Mo.; 24th, Bloomington, III.; 28th, Detroit, Mich.; November 3, Kingston, N. Y.; the 5th Northampton, Mass, the 7th sand 8th, the Philadelphia Orchestra; the 10th, Philadelphia Orchestra; the 10th, Philadelphia Orchestra; the 10th, Philadelphia Orchestra; the 10th, Philadelphia Orchestra; the 10th

Lois Ewell.

Contury Opera Company

arduous labor of a long American tour. on the 18th of October, when Fritz Kreisler will give his first rectial after why in joint rectital togeth. When I per the season is the difference on pension of the older for the active and transfer on the season will be an unusually rich one. The Boss will be an unusually rich one in the programmes by the Boston Symphony Orchestra will give five five concerts in the opera house on Friday evenings. This will be for Micks agreed the ofference of the concerts represented by the operation of the programmes by the Boston Symphony or Chestra under his new engagement. Every seat in the operation of the Symphony or Chestra, the house was taken last season, and it is expected that the demand for seas will he in excess of the capacity of the increase of the Capacity of the Symphony Orchestra, "The Taming of the Shrew," "Othellon." White Damrosch, conductor, will give two of the five lecture recitals at the Belawo The Activation of the programmes by the state of the training of the Shrew," "Othellon." The will be in excess of the capacity of the Santing Popular of the Shrew," "Othellon." The will be in excess of the capacity of the Santing Popular of the Shrew," "Othellon." The will be in excess of the capacity of the Santing Popular of the Shrew," "Othellon." The state of the sta Paderewski leaves his home in Morges.

Switzerland, the end of this week to spend and on his way there and back will a short time in Paris before sailing for play in all the principal cities west of this country. Accompanied by Mme. the Mississippi. He will be in America Paderewski and L. G. hSarp, his English until late spring.

Music lovers of this city will be interested to learn that a new organization has, been founded to be known as the Schroeder Trio. The trio will comprise such well known artists as Ethel Gave such well known artists as Ethel Gave Cole, pianist: Sylvain Noack, violinist, and Alwin Schroeder, cellist. Mrs. Cole is a graduate of the London Royal Col-lege and for the past ten years has been a prominent figure in the musical life of New York. Mr. Noack, the second concert master of the Boston Symphony Orches-tra, in the few years that he has been in this country has gained a firm foothold in the affections of the musical public, and Mr. Schroeder, long associated with the Mr. Schroeder, long associated with the Boston Symphony Orchestra as first cellist, is one of the greatest cello artists in the world. The trio plans to devote itself to piano chamber music in its various branches and its concerts will undoubtedly prove most popular.

The travelling concert season for 1913 The travelling concert season for 1913 will begin on October 1 at the Worcester, Mass., festival, Mme. Schumann-Heink will open her season there. Other artists appearing will be Miss Florence Hinkle, Herbert Witherspoon, Reinald Werrenphony which he had just finished. Mr. Paderewski's plans call for between eighty and ninety concerts and he will be in America until the latter part of April, His season begins in Trenton, N. J. October

The Symphony Society of New York, Bachaus, Harold Bauer, Josef Hofmana George Barrere and Gustave Langenus.

I. M. Ruben, who was formerly cenconcert stars and organizations.

LONG SEASON PROMISED FOR SOCIETY—AUTUMN PASTIMES AT SOUTHERN RESORTS Mrs. William F. Peters of Riverside Drive, who is still at her country home in close their country home at Glen Ridge. Greenwich, Conn., gave a luncheon at the Greenwich Country Club on Thursday to thirty of her friends. The guests were seated at one large round table on the veranda, decorated with wild flowers, to her home, 2 West Eighty-sixth street, from her country home on the Rumson road, Sea-

Continued from Fifth Page.

attendant, and Wheeler Gardner was the

Another small wedding on Wednesday was that of Miss Josephine Dwyer, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dwyer of 209 West 107th street, to Ernest George Badcock. The Rev. Father Norris of the Church of the Holy Name officiated. The bride wore a gown of white crepe charmeuse trimmed with point lace and a charmeuse tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried lilies of the valley and roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Rose English. Robert Forman was the

Col. and Mrs. George Clinton Batcheller who were recently married in Boston, will reside at 237 West Seventy-second street upon the return from their wedding

Mrs. Harold George Wood of 220 West 197th street gave a luncheon to the patronesses of the newly organized Society Card Club on Friday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Arthur, Pelham Manor. The club begins its season on October 27.
The meetings will be held on the second and fourth Tuesdays during the season in the ballroom of the Hotel Marseille.

The patronesses include Mrs. Arthur.

Mrs. Nathan Arnold, Mrs. John Sherwin Mrs. Nathan Arnold, Mrs. John Snerwin Crosby, Mrs. P. J. Casey, Mrs. Carl Crone-meyer. Mrs. Edward Kirkland Coning. Mrs. Edward M. Hookey Mrs. John J. Hayes, Mrs. John Kurrus, Mrs. Bernet Kennedy, Mrs. Noble McConnell, Mrs. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Noble McConnell, Mrs. H. West Ninety-seventh street. Joy John Pierce Miller, Mrs. Martin J. Pendergast, Mrs. Alfred M. Richmond. Craig Whiteman and Julia Rose E. White. October &.

Greenwich Country Club on Thursday to thirty of her friends. The guests were seated at one large round table on the veranda, decorated with wild flowers, thistle, golden rod, phlox and ferns. They included Mrs. George Warren Dunn, president of the Clib; Mrs. Mildred Manbers of time executive board of the Eclectic Place on the Hudson. She entertained the members of time executive board of the Eclectic Club; Mrs. Buck G. Carleton, Mrs. J. Henry McKinley, Mrs. Charles E. Haselton, Mrs. Charles E. Haselton, Mrs. Charles E. Haselton, Mrs. Charles E. Haselton, Mrs. Charles E. Charles Crosby, Mrs. Ar-ling relatives in the West. They will

The Lenox Whist Ciub will begin its fourteenth season on October 20. James Slater of 20 Fifth avenue will b

The Evening Bridge Club, organized by Dr. and Mrs. John Kurrus, will hold its first meeting early in November at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. B.

Dr. and Mrs. John Kurrus closed their summer home on North Lake Drive, Elberon, N. J., yesterday and returned to their new town residence, 16 West 121st

Pendergast, Mrs. Alfred M. Richmond. Mrs. Thomas P. Ryan, Mrs. Henry Schlick-man, Mrs. James Slater, Mrs. Walker Ninety-sixth street, who have been abroad Mrs. Eleanor Walker, Mrs. Roy all summer, will sail for New York or

Dr. and Mrs. Arkell R. McMichael, who wedding. spent the greater part of the summer at the Edgewood Inn. Greenwich. Conn., have returned to their home, 971 Madison ave-are entertaining Mrs. Effie Wade Austin of Washington at their home. Paterno Castle, Riverside Drive and 1826 street. Dr. and Mrs. Paterno recently returned Dr. and Mrs. Paterno recently returned street has announced the engagement of from a two weeks automobile trip through her daughter, Miss Mae Gertrude Speyer, from Europe, where she spent the summer,

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Reckendorfer, who recently returned to their home, 20 East Sixty-second street, from the country, salied yesterday for Europe. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Adelaide Reckendorfer. Mrs. Frederick James Powell of Stuyvesant Square North has returned to her home from Ballater, Aberdeenshire, Scot-land, where she passed the summer.

Scot-land where she passed the summer.

Sto 11. Among those who will probably

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent Paterno at the Hotel Ansonia. The ceremony will be parferred by par The wedding of Miss Lella Adel Schloss

Mrs. John Haven Pugh has returned to daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis her home. 60 West Seventy-fifth street, to Walter Lobman of Montgomery. Ala. was celebrated on Tuesday at Delmon-ico's. Miss Hannah Davis was her sis-ter's only attendant and Myron Lobman

AT HOT SPRINGS.

Ind. where she passed the summer.

The Virginia Hot Springs from October onlookers in bright colored wraps and have their burgalows. The length of the sweaters making a pretty picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Johnson and their burganet of the sweaters making a pretty picture.

Mrs. Walter C. Janney of Philadelphia and Miss Gladys ingalis tied with a score a recent dinner of this kind the last course

The annual fall tennis tournament to take place October 13 to 18 is attract-ing an equal amount of interest. The two Fine Art Club; Mrs. Buck G. Carleton, Mrs. J. Henry McKinley, Mrs. Charles E. Hazelton, Mrs. Charles Crosby, Mrs. Arnouncement has been made of the engagement of Miss Edith Rosenwald, ling relatives in the West. They will return to their home, I West Eighty-third street, the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burns are visiting relatives in the West. They will daughter of Julius Rosenwald of the firm return to their home, I West Eighty-third street, the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burns are visiting relatives in the West. They will daughter of Julius Rosenwald of the firm return to their home, I West Eighty-third street, the latter part of this month.

Sulzberger, vice-president of Sulzberger biomship here last falls are already enjoinship here last falls are already enjoyable.

Dr. and Mrs. Arkell R. McMichael, who cup in last year's tournament; John, Charles and Hugh inman, the Misses Jeannie and Marle Louise Emmet, and Gladys Ingalls, George Wren, Craig Bid-McCullon and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Car the winners in both tournaments has been put on exhibition in the Homestead lobby. More than twenty cups will be given in besides a large silver and gold challenge was on Beaumont Mountain, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Henry.

Clarence Hobart of New York, one time tennis champion of the United States, and H. B., Stevens, Jr., have been in Knoxville, where they represented the Asheville. William C. Worthington of Baltimore was hostess. The affair was in compliment to Miss Alice Scarborough before her departure for home.

Mrs. William Warren of New Orleans, Mrs. William Warren of New Orleans, the has been a quest of Mr. and Mrs. E.

a stay and gave a dinner there the middle of the week for Mr. and Mrs. Bright, Mrs. W. H. Holmes and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, Jr., Mrs. Worthington, Mrs. James, Mrs. Mehle, Dr. R. A. Black and Dr. John H. Girvan

AT ASHEVILLE.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 20.-New York guests who have been sojourning at Bat-tery Park Hotel have prolonged their demonth, and now comes the announcement that the greens committee of the Country besides a large silver and gold challenge cup offered to the winner of three successive tournaments by Greenleaf & Crosby and won last year by Fred In-Asheville has one of the finest golf courses in the South and to boom this

The greater part of the autumn colony urned out several days ago for a putting ournament arranged by Mrs. Melville E. Iragilis and Miss Alice Scarborough of take of the various courses by motoring Cancinnati. A large gallery in chairs lined from mountain peak to valley, or wherehe putting green, the women players and ever the host and hostesses happen to have their hurgallows. The leasth of the visiting in Nashville.

Among the New Yorkers who have registered at the Battery Park Hotel recently are Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Park, Edward Hugh Long, Neil C. Malone, F. C. King, G. F. Moore, William Vandeward, L. A. Hyman, E. H. Shaw, Thomas B. Sheridan, B. K. Pugh and D. T. Wilborn.

For Other Society News See Eightth

Page.

FORTY-FIRST SEASON Oratorio Society of New York LOUIS KOEMMENICH, Conductor,

The Symphony Orchestra and eminent soloists will assist the chorus in a season of unusual interest. The program consists of Schumann's "Ruth." "Beethoven's "Mass in D." Handel's "The Messiah" and a concert of a capella music.